2022 Business Report

Explanation:

A. Annual Business Result of 2022

1. Business plan implementation results

2022 consolidated revenue is NT$11.099 billion, it declined by 20.46% compared with NT$13.954 billion in 2021. The revenue is still affected by the stalemate in the Russia-Ukraine war and high inflation which resulting in the global economy weakens; terminal market demand weakens. With the adjustment of inventory by customer which continues to affect our shipping momentum, the overall revenue was affected.

Thanks to the efforts of the Company's management team, despite the difficult political and economic environment in 2022, the revenue has maintained the growth level before the epidemic.

- (1) In the first half of the year, laptop battery packs were affected by factors such as China's lockdown, global inflation, and a sharp increase in CPI. In the second half of the year, the economic recovered. Customers focused on lowering the inventory level and clearance resulting in a decrease in revenue.
- (2) For battery modules of Netcom products, shipments slowed down due to factors such as factories shutdowns and material shortages affected by the epidemic. In the second half of the year, due to inflation and rising of interest rates, consumption momentum stagnated, resulting in a decrease in revenue.
- (3) Battery packs for power tools and gardening products: Due to the continuous impact of the Russia-Ukraine war and the global economic situation, the market didn't respond to the recession in time last year result in customers holding excess inventories.
- (4) Battery packs for E-bike: We entered the supply chain of brand factories in 2022. With the effect of automatic vehicles industries severe inventory problem, the original demand not only delays the shipment time, but also reduces the demand quantity.
- 2. Budget implementation

The Company has not announced the financial forecast for 2022.

B. Summary of 2023 business plan

Looking forward to year 2023, the team will continue to cooperate with the existing customer base to carry out various product applications. In addition to development, we are also actively expanding battery pack products in other fields such as electric tools, electric vehicles, and energy storage applications.

The summary of the 2022 business plan is as follows:

- (1) Business and important production and marketing policies
 - 1. In addition to strengthening existing customer service, strive for product diversification to increase non-3C product portfolio items and increase the proportion of niche products.
 - 2. Continue to invest in the research and development of new technologies and new products. Expand new customers.
 - 3. Improve the intensity of the automated process and the efficiency of production capacity to reduce the impact of manpower demand and shortage.
 - 4. Strengthen inventory and quality control, strengthen cooperation with development suppliers, and ensure cost-effective management.
 - 5. The ongoing trade friction between China and the United States has caused geopolitics to heat up, we will continue to adjust production bases to meet customer needs.

(2) Expected sales volume and its basis

Looking back on 2022, due to the impact of the Russo-Ukrainian war, inflation has remained high, resulting in the overall economic weaken and end market demand was sluggish.

Looking forward to 2023, the epidemic impact in various countries will recover and the epidemic dividend will no longer be available. Laptops and Power tools battery packs demand will increase as customers continue to adjust the inventory level in the first half of 2023. The market trend tends to be conservative. Countries are vigorously promoting 5G infrastructure construction, which will promote the growth of the smart home and the Internet of Things industry. This will continue to drive the growth of the Company's Netcom products.

In addition, the revenue of energy storage products such as small and medium-sized energy storage systems and large-scale energy storage solutions is also increasing. The field of grid-level energy storage (MWh type) in Taiwan will also be able to make progress this year. It is expected that the revenue of energy storage related products will continue to grow in 2022.

In the future, the Company will continue to invest in the research and development of electric vehicles (E-Bike, E-Motor and electric ships, etc.) battery modules and energy storage-related battery modules for automatic production equipment. It is expected to use the advantage of technological innovation to make the Company's performance reach another peak.

The Company will also pay close attention to market changes. In addition to managing inventory risks, when the market reverses, it can meet the shipment demand as much as possible.

C. Future company development strategy

- 1. Actively develop products and new customers in new application fields, expand business scale and profitability.
- 2. Implement exclusive customer services for existing customers and strengthen patent and technical cooperation levels to obtain customer trust and then increase the proportion of orders placed with the Company.
- 3. Strengthen the design of automated production lines and fixtures to improve production efficiency and performance.
- 4. In line with the development trend of the green energy industry, develop energy storage and apply related products.
- 5. Strengthen the research and development of power batteries and energy storage application systems.

D. Impact of he external competitive environment, regulatory environment and overall business environment

- 1. The technical capability of China counterparts in 3C products has improved, and the pressure of competition is high.
- 2. Actively strengthen the supply chain of raw materials to solve the problem of shortage of spare parts in the future.
- 3. The cost of direct labor in China continues to rise rapidly due to the impact of the epidemic.
- 4. In the face of climate change and net-zero carbon emission regulations, strengthen the countermeasures.
- 5. The global tax reform and the new tax system will affect the competitiveness of enterprises.

- 6. The smart home and Internet of Things industries are expected to bring business opportunities for Netcom.
- 7. The awareness of environmental protection is rising, and the demand and sales volume of the energy storage industry are increasing.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Board of Directors and Shareholders Celxpert Energy Corporation

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying parent company only financial statements of Celxpert Energy Corporation (the "Company"), which comprise the parent company only balance sheets as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the parent company only statements of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the parent company only financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying parent company only financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the accompanying parent company only financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and its parent company only financial performance and its parent company only cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants and the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Parent Company Only Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with The Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant of the Republic of China, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Kev Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the parent company only financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2022. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the parent company only financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. The key audit matters that we determine should be communicated in the audit report are as follows:

1. Inventory Valuation

Refer to Note 4 (7) Inventory to the parent company only financial statements for the accounting policy on inventory valuation. Refer to Note 5 to the parent company only financial statements for information regarding the uncertainty of inventory valuation. Refer to Note 6 (3) Inventory to the parent company only financial statements for accounting items related to inventory.

Explanation on Key Audit Matter:

The inventory of the Company is measured at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Due to the customized nature of the contract manufacturing business, the risk of inventory obsolescence increases if customers anticipate orders in excess of actual purchases. Therefore, inventory impairment due to obsolescence risk is identified as a key audit matter in our examination of the financial statements of the Company.

Corresponding Audit Procedures

Our main audit procedures for the above key audit matters include reviewing the Company's inventory valuation policy for reasonableness and compliance with the regulations of the Company, taking into account the potential impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. In addition, we reviewed the inventory aging report, analyzed changes in inventory aging over each period, and tested the relevant values of the lower of cost or net realizable value in connection to the interval classification.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Parent Company Only Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the parent company only financial statements in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of parent company only financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the parent company only financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance (including members of the Audit Committee) are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Parent Company Only Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the parent company only financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these parent company only financial statements.

As parts of an audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- 1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the parent company only financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intention omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- 2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- 3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- 4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the parent company only financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- 5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the parent company only financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the parent company only financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

6. Obtain sufficient and appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the parent company only financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the parent company only financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2022 and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partners on the audit resulting in this independent auditors' report are Kuan-Ying Kuo and I-Wen Wang

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Celxpert Energy Corporation and its subsidiaries (the "Company"), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the consolidated statements of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), International Accounting Standards (IAS), IFRIC Interpretations (IFRIC), and SIC Interpretations (SIC) endorsed and issued into effect by the Financial Supervisory Commission of the Republic of China.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants and the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with The Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant of the Republic of China and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Kev Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2022. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter for the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2022 is stated as follows:

1. Inventory Valuation

Refer to Note 4 (8) Inventory to the consolidated financial statements for the accounting policy on inventory valuation. Refer to Note 5 to the consolidated financial statements for information regarding the uncertainty of inventory valuation. Refer to Note 6 (3) Inventory to the consolidated financial statements for accounting items related to inventory.

Explanation on Key Audit Matter

The inventory of the Company is measured at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Due to the customized nature of the contract manufacturing business, the risk of inventory obsolescence increases if customers anticipate orders in excess of actual purchases. Therefore, inventory impairment due to obsolescence risk is identified as a key audit matter in our examination of the financial statements of the Company.

Corresponding Audit Procedures

Our main audit procedures for the above key audit matters include reviewing the company's inventory valuation policy for reasonableness and compliance with the regulations of the company, taking into account the potential impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. In addition, we reviewed the inventory aging report, analyzed changes in inventory aging over each period, and tested the relevant values of the lower of cost or net realizable value in connection to the interval classification.

Other Matter

We have also audited the parent company only financial statements of Celxpert Energy Corporation as of and for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021 on which we have issued an unmodified opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and the IFRS, IAS, IFRIC, and SIC endorsed and issued into effect by the Financial Supervisory Commission of the Republic of China, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance (including members of the Audit Committee) are responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- 1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- 2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

- 3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- 4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- 5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- 6. Obtain sufficient and appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Company to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirement regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2022 and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partners on the audit resulting in this independent auditors' report are Kuan-Ying Kuo and I-Wen Wang

Corporate Social Responsibility Best Practice Principles

Chapter I Article 1

General Principles

In order to to fulfil the corporate social responsibility initiatives and to promote economic, environmental, and social advancement for purposes of sustainable development, The Company set up corporate social responsibility principles in accordance with the "Corporate Social Responsibility Code of Practice for Listed OTC Companies" established by the competent authority to manage its economic, environmental, and social risks and impacts.

Article 2 The principles include the entire operations of The Company and its business group.

The Company shall actively fulfil their corporate social responsibility in the course of their business operations so as to follow international development trends and to contribute to the economic development of the country, to improve the quality of life of employees, the community and society by acting as responsible corporate citizens, and to enhance competitive edges built on corporate social responsibility.

Article 3 In fulfilling corporate social responsibility initiatives, The Company shall, in its corporate management guidelines and business operations, give due consideration to the rights and interests of stakeholders and, while pursuing sustainable operations and profits, also give due consideration to the environment, society and corporate governance.

Article 4 To implement corporate social responsibility initiatives, the Company shall follow the principles below:

- 1.Exercise corporate governance.
- 2. Foster a sustainable environment.
- 3. Preserve public welfare.
- 4.Enhance disclosure of corporate social responsibility information.

Article 5

The Company shall take into consideration the correlation between the development of domestic and international corporate social responsibility principles and corporate core business operations, and the effect of the operation of individual companies and of their respective business groups as a whole on stakeholders, in establishing their policies, systems or relevant management guidelines, and concrete promotion plans for corporate social responsibility programs, which shall be approved by the Board of Directors and then reported to the shareholders' meeting.

When a shareholder proposes a motion involving corporate social responsibility, The Company's Board of Directors is advised to review and consider including it in the shareholders' meeting agenda.

Chapter II Article 6

Exercising Corporate Governance

The Company shall follow the Corporate Governance Best Practice Principles for TWSE/GTSM Listed Companies, the Ethical Corporate Management Best Practice Principles for TWSE/GTSM Listed Companies, and the Code of Ethical Conduct for TWSE/GTSM Listed Companies to establish effective corporate governance frameworks and relevant ethical standards so as to enhance corporate governance.

Article 7

The directors of The Company shall exercise the due care of good administrators to urge The Company to perform its corporate social responsibility initiatives, examine the results of the implementation thereof from time to time and continually make adjustments so as to ensure the thorough implementation of its corporate social responsibility policies.

Article 8

The Company shall, based on respect for the rights and interests of stakeholders, identify stakeholders of The Company, and establish a designated section for stakeholders on The Company website; understand the reasonable expectations and demands of stakeholders through proper communication with them, and adequately respond to the important corporate social responsibility issues which they are concerned about.

Chapter III

Fostering a Sustainable Environment

Article 9 The Company shall follow relevant environmental laws, regulations and international standards to properly protect the environment and shall endeavour to promote a sustainable environment when engaging in business operations and internal management.

Article 10 The Company endeavour to utilize all resources more efficiently and use renewable materials which have a low impact on the environment to improve sustainability of natural resources.

- Article 11
- The Company is advised to establish proper environment management systems based on the characteristics of their industries. Such systems shall include the following tasks:
- Collecting sufficient and up-to-date information to evaluate the impact of The Company's business operations on the natural environment.
